

25th October 2017
Astomos Energy Corporation

Warning of Spoof e-mail for customers.

Recently we received several messages from our customers regarding spoof e-mail messages pretending to be the recruiter from our Middle East Office.

As of 25th October 2017, we are not recruiting any personnel outside Japan. Our Middle East Office has not send any e-mail or message regarding recruitments.

In case you have received any suspicious e-mail or message, please DO NOT open any attachment or click any links on the suspicious e-mail. Please BLOCK and DELETE the sender from your e-mail client immediately.

We also found the existence of a fake website using unauthorized images and information stolen from our official website. Please be noted that URL for our official website is 'astomos.com' and 'astomos.jp'. Astomos does not have any relation with other websites.

Following e-mail subjects and addresses are used in the suspicious e-mail:

Subject:

Your CV/RESUME to Astomos Energy-UAE. etc.

Address:

info@astomosuae.com

astomos.energy@outlook.com etc.

We appreciate your understanding and continuous support.
